

PRICE GUIDE-DOMICILLARY CARE

ISSUE DATE: 01.OCT-2013; VERSION: 2

Our price structure is designed to be transparent and fair. Additional charges are only made for unsociable hours, with no premium payable for travelling or caring for highly dependent clients. Unlike other homecare services where extras can add considerably to your final bill, you pay only for the care that you receive.

All our staff has chosen caring for individuals as their career, and are employed on a permanent basis, and are fully trained and insured. We do not use agency staff.

Note

The Night Sleeper rate applies when the carer is provided with a bed and can expect to get sufficient sleep to be able to work the next day. Where a Night Sleeper is required three or more times during the night, the Night Carer rate will be applied. There is a minimum delivery of 14 hours per week for Personal Care

Terms & Conditions:

We aim to provide the highest levels of service and exceed any recommendations laid down by the Care Quality Commission.

Fees are chargeable for services rendered in accordance with our current Price List. Prices may be reviewed from time to time for which you will receive 7 days' notice.

In order to allow us to plan our work schedules, 72 hours' notice is required of any changes you may wish to make to your service.

Considerable investment is made in training and developing staff who are therefore prohibited from accepting any direct offers of employment from clients. However, should any client employ directly any member of Skillcare's staff who is or has been employed in the previous six months, then a fee of £1500 will be due.

Fees are payable within seven days of invoice and any outstanding amounts may be subject to an additional interest charge equal to 8% above

RBS Base Rate.

Skillcare welcomes feedback from its clients or their representatives.
